

Meanings of Names

- Adam "Man, Red ground"
- Seth "Appointed"
- Enosh "Mortal, mankind"
- Kenan "Sorrow"
- Mahalalel "Blessed God, God shines forth"
- Jared "Servant, shall come"
- Enoch "Teaching, initiated, dedicated"
- Methuselah "Death shall bring"
- Lamech "Despairing"
- Noah "Comfort, rest, relief"

Man is appointed unto mortal sorrow, but the Blessed God shall come teaching and his death shall bring the despairing comfort.

Lot was the father of both his daughter's children, Moab and Ben-ammi. - Genesis 19:30-38

Ishmael became a great archer in the wilderness of Paran. - Gen. 21:20

The world was divided in his days. - Genesis 10:25

His descendants inhabited the coastlands. - Page 2

The father of all those who play the lyre and pipe. - Genesis 4:21

The father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. - Genesis 4:20

Forger of all instruments of bronze and iron. - Genesis 4:22

Nimrod was a mighty hunter and builder. He built Babel, Nineveh and many other places. - Genesis 10

His descendants journeyed south into Africa and Arabia. - See page 2

The exact timeframe of Job is unknown, but it is surmised that he lived shortly before the time of Abraham.

Esau's wives were a source of grief for Isaac and Rebekah. - Gen. 26:35

Page 2

Page 3

Leah Unattractive and had weak eyes
Rachel Beautiful shepherdess
They married Jacob